

UP STREET MUSIC PATRONS COLLEGIATE SCHOLARSHIP FUND GUIDELINES

Online application open: March 1st
Deadline to apply: March 31, 11:59 PM
Awards announced by: April 30th

Overview

Up Street Music Patrons collegiate scholarship fund was created to celebrate and support the continued education of Sonoma County High School seniors or Santa Rosa Junior College transfer students who will pursue a four-year degree in a music discipline at an accredited college or university.

Eligibility Criteria

If applicants have any questions about eligibility, selection criteria, auditions, or regarding any of the following requirements, we encourage contacting Up Street Music Patrons to discuss this information before applying.

Applicants must:

- Currently be in 12th grade, attending a High School within Sonoma County or
- Currently be attending Santa Rosa Junior College with an accepted transfer
- Have applied to, and been accepted, and plan to attend an accredited college or university under a music major
- Maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher
- Complete and submit the online application between March 1st and March 31st, including supporting documents

Application Review Criteria

The following criteria will be used to evaluate each application for audition selection:

- Meets school and GPA eligibility criteria
- Thoroughness of application completion, including supporting documents

Audition Criteria

Applicants must submit two video links at time of application:

- Two videos that showcase two different aspects or styles of applicant's performance ability
- Video audition recordings must have clear audio and video in order to evaluate musicianship.
- Begin each audition recording with your name, the name of your piece, and your instrument.

Audition participants will be evaluated on musicianship, knowledge of basic music theory, and criteria specific to the particular music major they will pursue. (For example, a student who will pursue a major in vocal performance will be evaluated on vocal quality and stage presence.)

Scholarship Awards

Recipients will receive the following cash and services:

- $300 to $500 cash scholarship award
- Up to two hours of one-on-one coaching time with professional experts in the areas that align with the recipient's major
